REPORT:
COVID Cases In U.S. Nursing Homes

With vaccine rollout, nursing homes have seen a dramatic decline in new COVID cases and deaths.

UPDATED MARCH 2, 2021
NEW COVID CASES AMONG NURSING HOME RESIDENTS

December 20 – February 7

82% decline since December 20

Source: Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), December 20, 2020 – February 7, 2021
NEW COVID CASES AMONG NURSING HOME RESIDENTS

May 31, 2020 – February 7, 2021

Source: Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), May 31, 2020 – February 7, 2021

Feb. 7, 2021
lowest number of cases since CMS has been tracking
Nursing Home Cases Declining At Faster Rate Than Community Cases

- Nursing Homes: 82% decline
- Gen Pop: 46% decline

Source: Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), December 20, 2020 – February 7, 2021
COVID-RELATED DEATHS IN U.S. NURSING HOMES

December 20 – February 7

63% decline since December 20

Source: Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), May 31, 2020 – February 7, 2021
COVID-RELATED DEATHS IN U.S. NURSING HOMES
May 31, 2020 – February 7, 2021

63% decline since December 20

Source: Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), May 31, 2020 – February 7, 2021