With vaccine rollout, nursing homes continue to see a dramatic decline in new COVID cases and deaths.

UPDATED MARCH 30, 2021
NEW COVID CASES AMONG NURSING HOME RESIDENTS

December 20 – March 7

Source: Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), December 20, 2020 – March 7, 2021

96% decline since December 20
NEW COVID CASES AMONG NURSING HOME RESIDENTS
May 31, 2020 – March 7, 2021

March 7, 2021
lowest number of weekly cases since CMS has been tracking

Source: Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), May 31, 2020 – March 7, 2021
COVID-RELATED DEATHS IN U.S. NURSING HOMES
December 20 – March 7

91% decline since December 20

Weekly Confirmed COVID Related Deaths

Source: Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), May 31, 2020 – March 7, 2021
COVID-RELATED DEATHS IN U.S. NURSING HOMES
May 31, 2020 – March 7, 2021

March 7, 2021
lowest number of weekly deaths
since CMS has been tracking

Source: Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), May 31, 2020 – March 7, 2021
NURSING HOME CASES DECLINING AT FASTER RATE THAN COMMUNITY CASES

December 20, 2020 – March 7, 2021

Nursing Homes: 96% decline

General Population: 72% decline

Source: Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), May 31, 2020 – March 7, 2021