

State of the Nursing Home Industry:

Survey of 759 nursing home providers show industry still facing major staffing and economic crisis

June 2022

60% of nursing homes are experiencing worse staffing situations since the start of 2022.

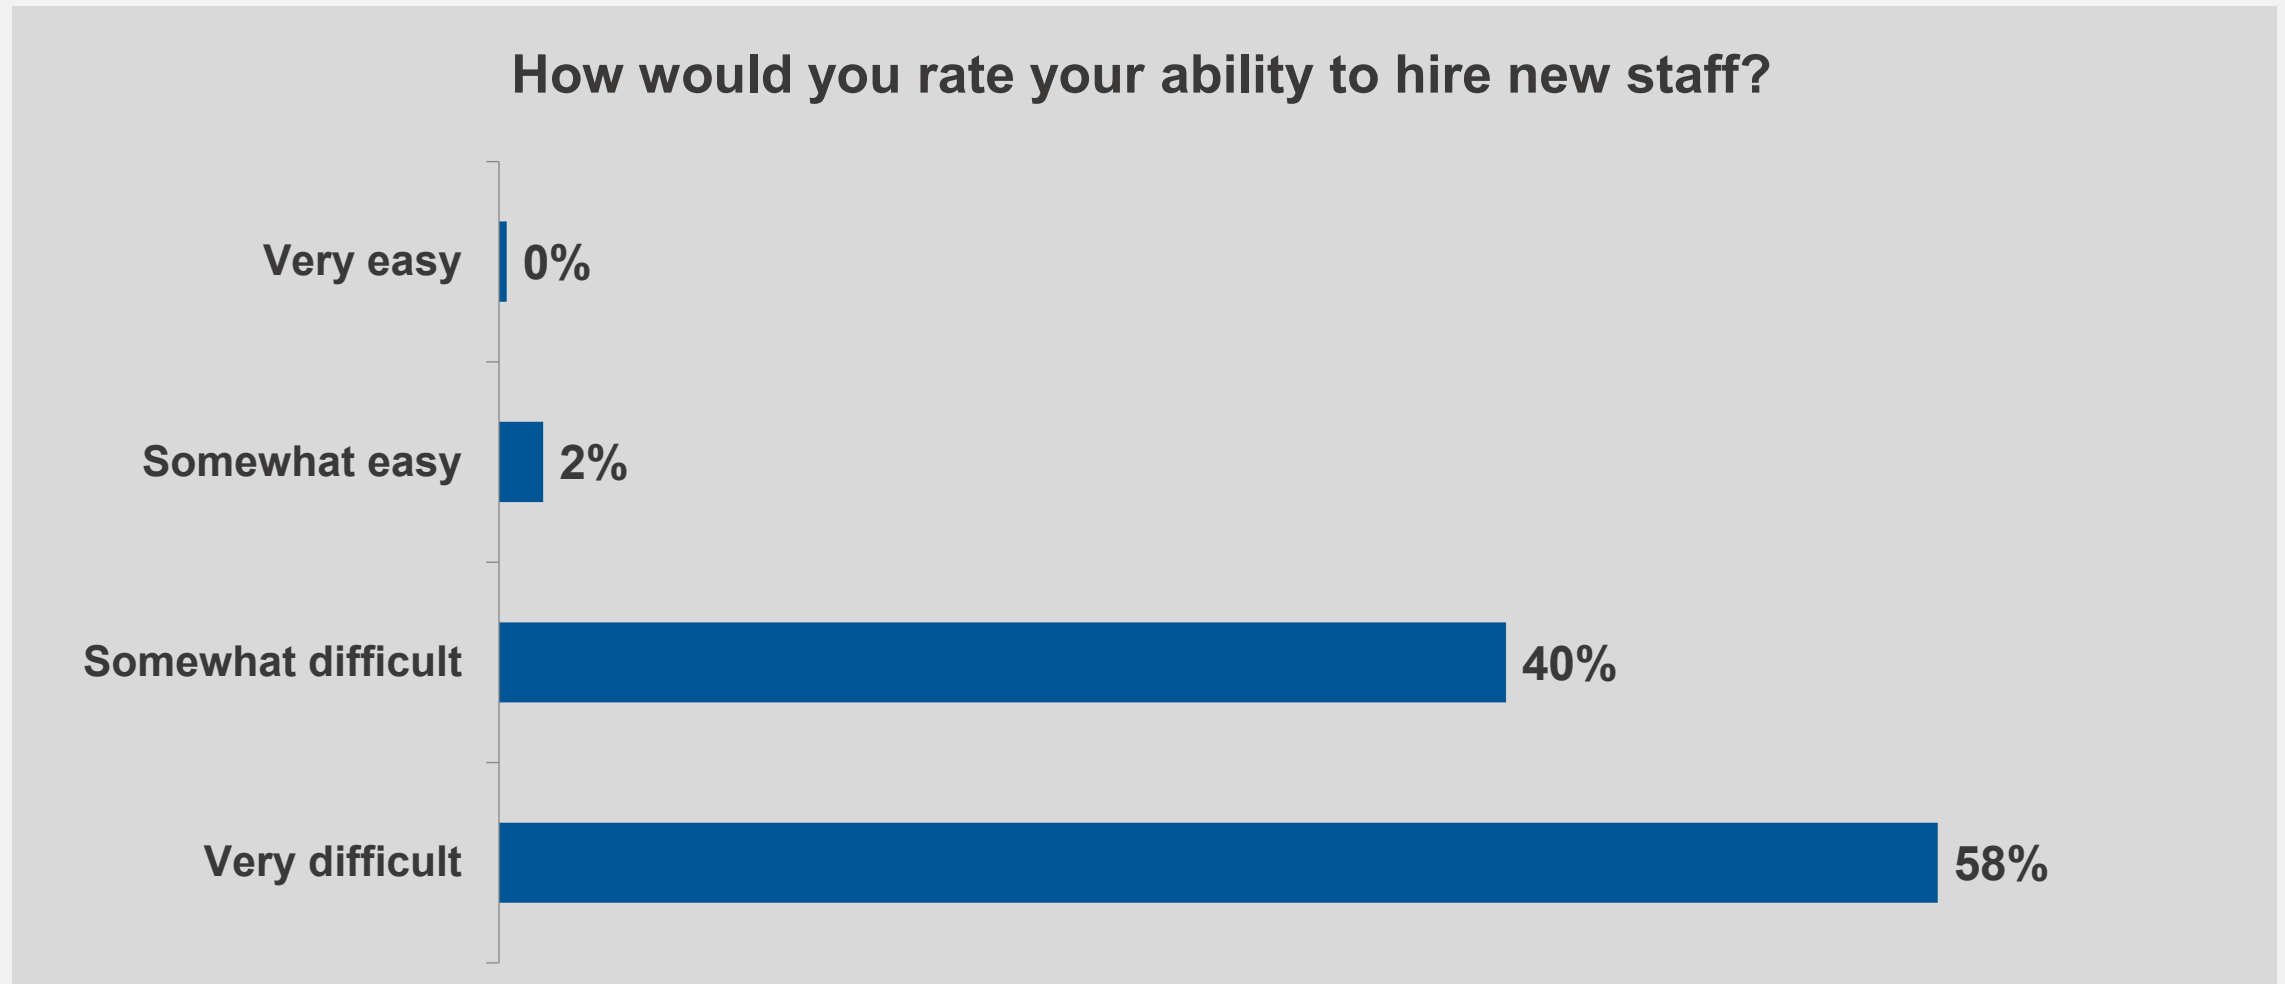

87% of nursing homes facing moderate or high staffing shortages.

What is your current staffing situation?

98% of nursing homes are experiencing difficulty hiring staff.

Nearly all nursing homes are asking staff to work more and 61% are limiting new admissions.

What adjustments have you made in recent months due to staffing shortages? (Check all that apply)

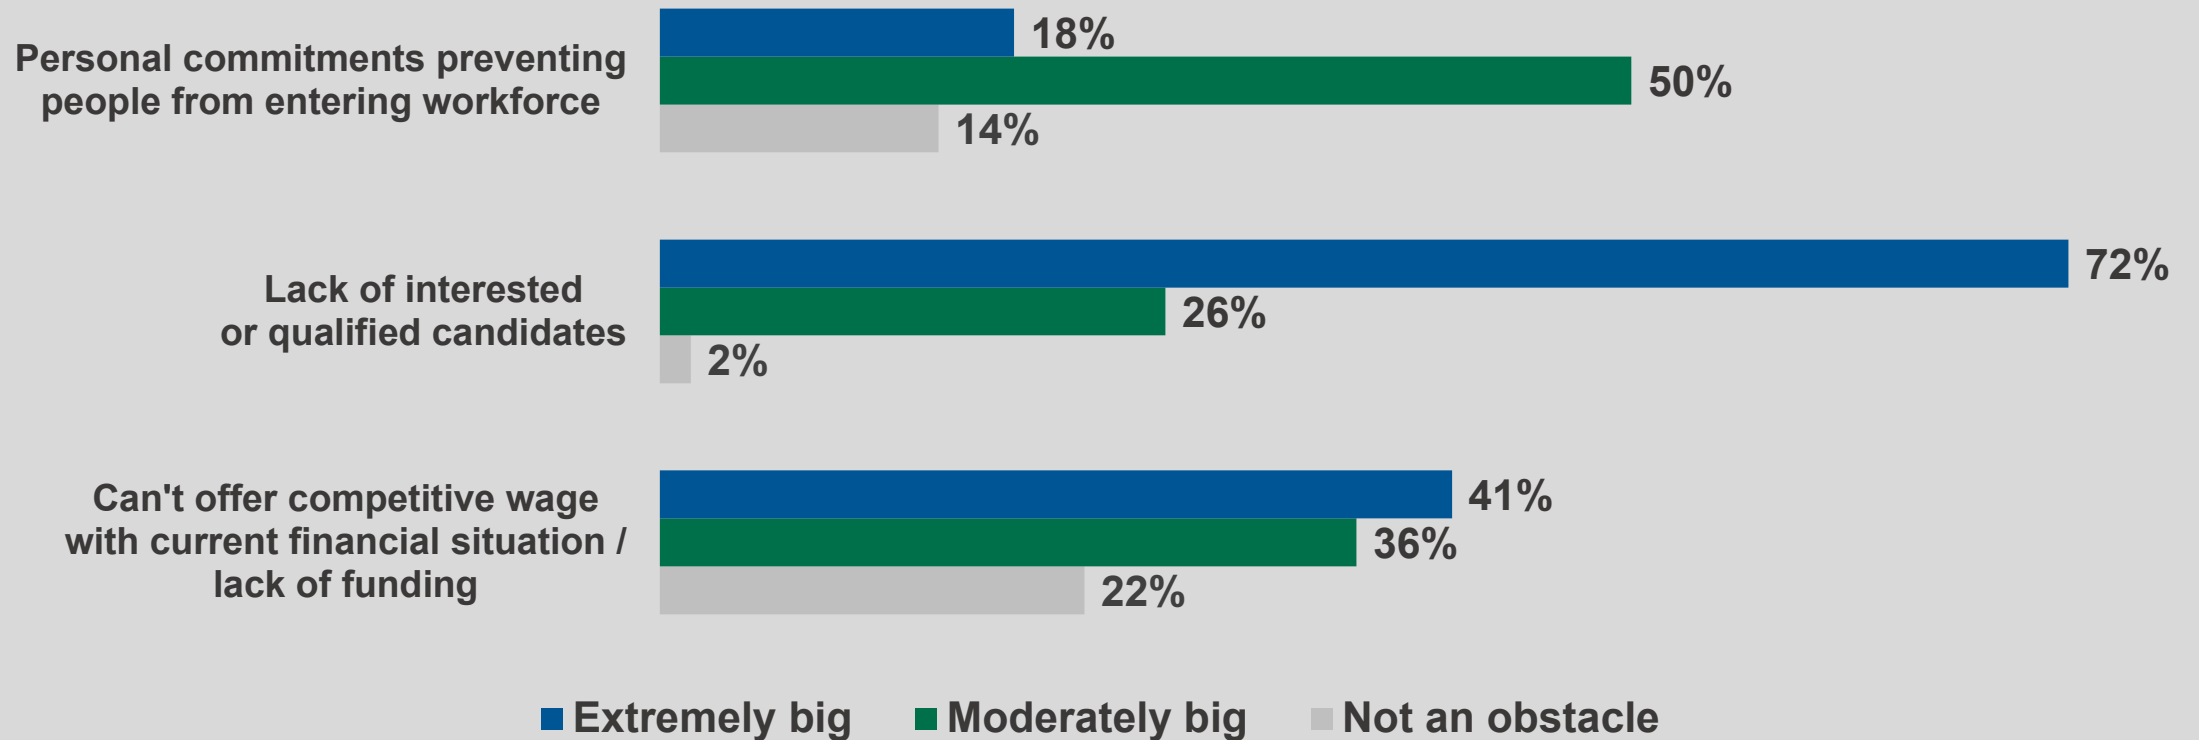

9 out of 10 nursing home providers have offered increased wages and bonuses.

In the past year, what strategies have you implemented to try to recruit and retain staff? (Check all that apply)

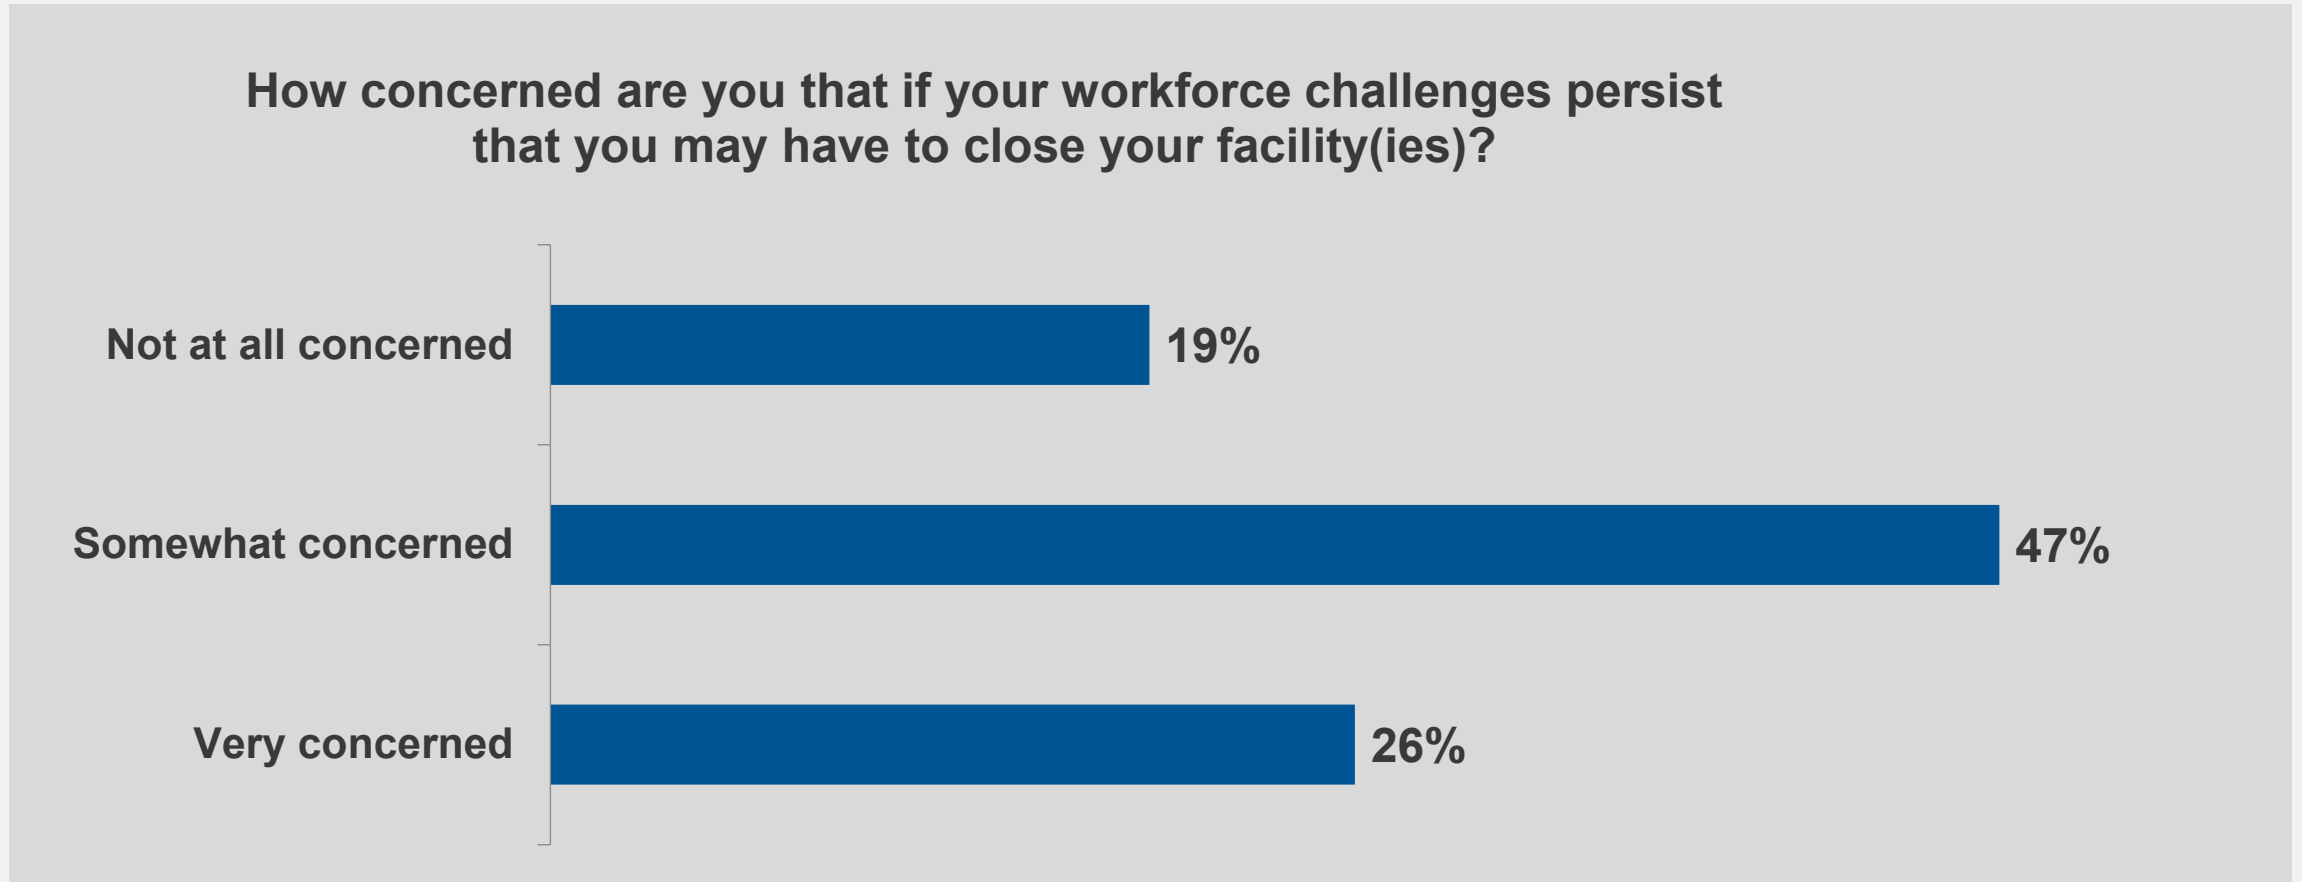

Lack of interested or qualified candidates is the top obstacle in hiring new staff.

How big are each of these obstacles in hiring new staff?

73% of nursing homes are concerned about having to close over staffing woes.

Nursing home providers estimate their costs have increased by 41% in one year.

By what percentage have your operational costs increased since this time last year?

AVERAGE:
41.0%

Nearly 6 out of 10 nursing home providers are operating at a loss.

What is your current operating situation relative to your budget?

More than half of nursing homes can't sustain their current pace more than one year.

How long can you sustain operating at its current pace?

