

Ron Smith serves as Performance Excellence Director for Mary Greeley Medical Center. Smith is responsible for facilitating rapid improvement event teams and works with departments throughout the medical center to implement standardized work and managing for daily improvements.

Smith is a certified lean six sigma green belt and a lead examiner, coach and judge for the Iowa Recognition for Performance Excellence Program, and has served on the Malcom Baldrige National Board of Examiners since 2015. Additionally, he currently serves as a board member for the Iowa Quality Center and is a standing member Iowa Lean Consortium.