

Cathy Sunlin

Cathy Sunlin has more than thirty-five years of health care experience across a range of settings, with twenty five plus years in the senior care/elder care field. In her current role, Ms. Sunlin serves as the Vice President of Regulatory & Quality Services for the Health Care Association of Michigan (HCAM). An RN and LNHA, Ms. Sunlin has served in a number of roles within long term care, including nurse aide, director of nursing, executive director, and regional director in several organizations. Her passion lies in the integration of process improvement, clinical excellence, and innovation across healthcare settings. Ms. Sunlin has been involved in the AHCA/NCAL National Quality Award program since 2010, seeing the program as a path for providers to both develop and demonstrate strong organizational systems & quality.
